

A
COLLECT

To be used in the Morning - Service

On the Sixteenth

Day of J U L Y ;

Appointed by the

L O R D S - J U S T I C E S

To be Observed as a Thanks-Giving-Day, for the late Eminent Victory in Connaught, July, 12. 1691.

D U B L I N,

Printed by Andrew Crook, Assignee of Benjamin Tooke, Printer to the King and Queens most Excellent Majesties on Ormonde-Key. 1691.

Benton 18.29

Est. April 16, 1935

A Collect to be used in the Morning-Service, &c.

O Lord God of Hosts! Thine is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the Victory, and the Majesty; for all that is in the Heaven and in the Earth is Thine; Thine is the Kingdom, O Lord! and Thou art exalted above all; both riches and honour come of thee, and thou Reignest over all, and in thy hand is power and might; and in thy hand it is to make great, and to give strength, to all; Now therefore O God! We thank thee, and praise thy glorious name for that series of success and Victory which thou hast given to thy servants King W I L L I A M and Queen
M A R Y our soveraigne Lord and Lady, against the Enemies of the peace and welfare of this their Kingdom of Ireland by the conduct of those Worthyes whom their Majesties have employed in that service; and the Undaunted cou-

courage of the private soldiers; whom (notwithstanding all the disadvantages of place, and inequality of numbers) thou hast enabled to smite their Enemies, untill their hands were weary and clave unto their Swords; and hast wrought a mighty Victory for thy praying, tho' unworthy servants. We humbly beg of thee to accept of these our gratefull and humble acknowledgments, of these undeserved favours; to continue them to us, and give us grace to make that use of them, that neither by arrogance, boldness, or presumptuous wickedness, we disoblige the Angel of thy presence, who hath hitherto gone before our hosts, and made every place whereon the Soles of their feet have troden to be theirs; from Derry to the Boyne, Balimore, Athlone, and lastly in Connaught; even to the uttermost sea; let no man be able to stand before them, but lay the dread and fear of them upon all the land they shall tread upon; that being delivered from the hands of them that hate us, we may love our Enemies as we are commanded, live in peace with all men, and serve thee without fear, in all vertue, godliness, and honesty all the days of our Life, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

F I N I S.

